

Wildlings Classroom Volunteer

We are searching for volunteers to assist with our preschool programming this school year! Volunteers serve as additional guides helping children to grow and learn in the great outdoors.

We are open Monday-Friday from 7:30am-5:30pm, and are looking for consistent weekly volunteers who would be interested in volunteering with us 1-6 hours per week.

This role may be for you if:

- You love being outdoors, and want to encourage an appreciation for nature in others
- You have prior experience with children ages 3-6
- You believe in child-centered learning through play and exploration
- You are looking for a way to connect with others in community and make the world a better place, one child at a time!

This role may include:

- Reading to children
- Assisting with prepping and implementing classroom activities including art and snack
- Joining the class for daily nature explorations
- Assisting with classroom clean up
- Other tasks as needed

Note: This role will require a background check.
